A conference on "Reading in Relation to Deafness" will be held at Gallaudet College on Thursday, May 25. The conference is being organized by Horace Reynolds (Psychology Department), Orin Cornett (Cued Speech Office) and Clarence Williams (Associate Dean for Research) and will include presentations by 13 researchers from Gallaudet and other colleges or universities. The meeting will take place in Hall Memorial Building, room 213, from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. The meeting will be followed by a reception and social hour hosted by Dr. Doin Hicks, Vice President for Research, Designate. Lunch and dinner will be available in the College Dining Hall. All members of the Gallaudet Community are encouraged to attend. A program and registration form for this conference will be distributed next week. For more information contact Horace Reynolds, Conference Coordinator, ext. 714.

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE" RETURNS TO KENDALL GREEN

Students at the MSSD will perform "Arsenic and Old Lace" at 8:00 p.m. on May 11, 12 and 13 and also at 10:00 a.m. on May 12 in the school auditorium. The play, a Joseph Kesselring comedy, was a Broadway hit some 36 years ago. This production is of special importance to Kendall Green in that three MSSD faculty members first acted in this play on campus in 1942 when Eric Malzkuhn was given special permission to perform this "hit" on Kendall Green.

Tickets for "Arsenic and Old Lace" are $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students or groups of 10 or more. They can be reserved through Ms. Wendy Bosler at ext. 864 (TTY and Voice). Be sure to join in the fun as this campus "legend" continues!

GALLAUDET DANCERS TO PERFORM AT THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL ON EMPLOYMENT OF THE HANDICAPPED

President Carter will be addressing the assembly at the opening meeting of the PCEH on May 4, at 11:00 a.m. The Gallaudet Dancers will be performing for this very influential meeting that has been described as a showcase for employers to witness the employability of handicapped individuals.

FORMER GRADUATE STUDENT CRITICALLY INJURED

Gilbert Delgado has learned that a former Gallaudet graduate student from Costa Rica, Mima Bravo, has been critically injured in a car accident there. If you are acquainted with Mima, please send her a card or note to help cheer her up. (To avoid delays, please send your communication by air mail.) Her address is: Srta. Mima Bravo, Unidad de Cuidados Intensivos, Hospital San Juan de Dios, San Juan, COSTA RICA, Central America.
